INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Dear Sir:-

In answer to yours of recent ^{date} will say: 1st I claim through my Mother, who is a directly descended from the Cherokee Indians. The descent is traced down to my self as follows to-wit:-

My Great Grandmother, Phoebe Smith was the wife of Capt. John Smith a full blood Cherokee Indian and was moved from here to the west. At same time John and Larkin Smith, Sons of Capt. Smith, were moved to the west. My Grandmother was Drucilla Smith, daughter of Capt. John and Phoebe Smith. She married Robert Storie. My Mother ~~was~~ Elinor Smith

Storie, was a daughter of Robert and Drucilla Storie, and she married my father James Reynolds.

2nd During the enrollment of 1851 I was only 7 years of age and can not say why my name is not on roll. do not know that any application was made for Enrollment.

3rd As to why my ancestors through whom I claim were or are not on roll I can not say. They were moved from here to the west and I do not see why they were not placed on roll.

4th If there were it was before I can remember, and I have not records to show. I can say, as far back as my Grandfather, that we or they were not slaves.

5th Will say, my ancestors resided with the Cherokee Indians ~~and from~~ until they were moved from this country to the West. And from the best information obtainable. My Great Grandfather, Capt.

John Smith was prominent in the Councils of the Cherokee Tribes, and was instrumental in a peaceable removal of the Cherokee Indians from this part of the Country to the West. He accompanied them. You will please bear in mind I am not a negro and of no Negro descent.

Yours Very Truly
John B Reynolds.

I have never received any Indian money from the government and never made application prior to this time. My mother never received any Indian money. She lived in the neighborhood with the Indians. Did any of your ancestors ever reside with any Indian tribe? If so, state when and where and give the name of such tribe, also state what part, if any, they took in their tribal councils.

Maam:-

Relative to your application for participation in the distribution of the Eastern Cherokee fund, kindly advise this office whether you claim your Indian descent through your father or mother.

Why were your parents not enrolled in 1851, and in 1835, if living at that time?

In your application, you have given this office practically no information upon which to determine what rights you may have in this matter.

You should at once furnish this office with the full names of your parents and grandparents through whom you claim your Indian descent, stating the tribe to which they belonged; also, where they were born; where they lived; where they were living in 1851 and 1835; and whether they were ever recognized by any Indians as belonging to the tribe as members of same, naming the particular tribe of Indians to which they may have belonged.

This must be done at once; otherwise, your claim

Triplett, N.C.

Sir:-

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state by the names of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim Cherokee descent and who were living in 1835 and 1851, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Were you or either of your parents or any of your ancestors ever held as a slave? If so, state whether you or they were owned by white people or Indians.

Give the names of your ancestors who resided with any Indian tribe, and state when and where they resided while living with Indians and what part, if any, they took in their tribal councils. Also give the name of such tribe, being careful to locate by county and state, the place of their residence.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Hubbs of Boston Atty's Aston Ind. Ind. a letter in which the state "we think Dr. J.B. Dice would have very little trouble to prove his Indian blood for we have plenty of evidence showing that his grand mother Elizabeth Woodruff formerly Elizabeth Elmore was a daughter of old Thomas Elmore Sr. and he was a son of John Elmore by his wife Ann-ah-mah-hah, a full blood Cherokee Indian woman all of which we have proof to show on file here in the Elmore claim. I sent the firm Ten Dollars to prosecute the claim & soon they made another demand for money & I failed to send it so the matter dropped. I claim my indian blood through my mother Her age at time of her death Jan 28th 1880 was 62 years She was recognized in the community in which she lived as white My grand parents at the time of my mothers birth were living at New Market Jefferson County Tenn and not with the indians but whites. My answer to question #4 will come in with my answer to # 10 Which I now take up that I may be better understood. The first knowledge of my being of indian decent came to me through a communication from H.H. Hubbard and son Attorneys at Afton Indian Territory They wrote me that they had plenty of proof on file in the Elmore claim to share in a former distribution and that they would have no trouble to connect me with the Elmores(I might explain here that the Hubbards formally lived in this part of the country) This the first intimation that I ever had of my indian ancestry at this time my parents were both dead and I have no relatives liveing and infact the old inhabitants ~~xx~~ are either dead or have mooved away I know of one man who remembers his father made an affidavit in the Elmore claim and what he swore none of my ancestors ever received any moneys lands or shared in Winnie M. Gilliam being first duly sworn deposes and says:

I am 26 years of age and I live at Atlanta, Ind. I claim Indian descent through my mother's family. My mother Mary J. Roberts nee Minnie Rice, died about 15 years ago in middle age. She was born in Hamilton County, Ind. She got her Indian blood through both of my grandparents. Her mother grandmother was also named Mary J. Roberts. She died in Hamilton County, Ind. They say she was born in Guilford County, N.C. She was a real old lady at the time of her death. She came to Ind. in 1835 or 1836, the same time that the Winburns, the Roberts, and the Sweats did. My understanding is that they left N.C. because they were threatened with bondage, notwithstanding the fact that what colored blood they had was free born. My grandmother was has been dead 25 years or more. She was recognized as having Indian blood in her veins. Hansel Roberts was my great grandfather and was called an Indian. He came to Ind. at the same time as did the rest, and died here at a good old age. He must have been a half blood. My great grandmother on my mother's side was Kessiah Roberts.

Madam:-

relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, kindly state why the names of your parents and other ancestors through whom you claim Cherokee descent and who were living in 1835 and 1851, do not appear on the Cherokee rolls of those dates.

Were either of your parents or any of your ancestors ever held in slavery? If so, state whether they were owned by white people or Indians.

Do you claim any Indian descent whatever through your father? If so, give the names of his parents, together with his brothers and sisters.

Did any of your ancestors ever reside with any Indian tribe? If so, state when and where and give the name of such tribe, also state what part, if any, they took in their tribal councils.

very respectfully,

My greatgrandmother Rosa Togi
